

My speech

Dear Commanding Officer, Senior Officers, and Brother Officers

Good evening to all of you.

I am standing before you today on the completion of my tenure at SLNS Vijayaba. It is worth mentioning that this is the great opportunity for serving as an administrative officer at SLNS Vijayaba.

During my tenure, I was entrusted with the duties as the Base Barrack Officer, Technical officer, and Pigeon Island Fund manager. As well as during Security officer not available I perform as a security officer of the base. I was also given number of tasks and some reports, which I did my level best to meet. I also tried to fulfil the duties of the original officers in their absence.

As a part of being myself, I tried to make the lives of my sailors easier by introducing smarter ways. Some were successful and most were not. But I am happy that I was able to make a little influence, no matter how small. Because a little gesture is all what it takes to make a big difference.

I am satisfied with being able to complete this tenure at SLNS Vijayaba and I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my Commanding Officer, my Senior Officers, and my brother Officers for having trust on me. I have learned a lot from all of you during my time here, and I will cherish the memories we have made together.

I am leaving SLNS Vijayaba with a heavy heart, but I am also excited for the new challenges that lie ahead. I know that I will always be able to count on the support of fellow officers here.

I would like to extend my sincerest good wishes to you and your loved ones at home. May the Triple Gem bless you all with good health, happiness, and peace. May all your future endeavours be successful. Until we meet again.

Thank you again for everything.
